End of Times?

In my private practice I often clear the subconscious fears regarding the end of times, fear of God and judgment day.

The end of times is also a popular subject in the media. Movies and TV shows have certainly focused on them and the feared apocalypse.

All these are fear-based concepts and the attention brought to the subjects by the media help bring the hidden fears to the surface.

I can confirm that these are the end of times. However, what does that mean specifically? When prophecy has stated the end of the world it was from a limited perspective. The truth is the end of the world is the end of the world run by darkness. We are at the tail end of the darkness running rampant in the world and it is time to be set free from it.

How can we be set free from it sooner than later? By letting go of fear and karma.

Now, that brings up a logical question about real-world events occurring that is bringing up fear such as the wildfires in California. There is definitely more behind this than meets the eye and darkness definitely had its hand in it. Fire can be cleansing. Could God possibly be cleansing the darkness from California? The whole situation is bigger than we can wrap ourselves around but we can help. Pray for all involved.

Much karma is coming up right now for all to clear to release to move into the new golden age. Sometimes events such as these occur because of darkness as well as karma. A good question to ask and pray upon is, "What is it within me that is being reflected in X situation." You have more power to make change and impact the world than most realize. All are connected. By asking that question from within your heart and ask to be forgiven, you can set yourselves and others free quicker. Who knows what someone may have done in a past life. It's not to be judged but forgiven and healed to set all free.

During our monthly group clearing call of this month, God gave all participant's a special dispensation that all karma was cleared for those who knowingly or unknowingly served darkness this lifetime or others. What a gift that was!

This is also the time predicted regarding trial and tribulation. What are your challenges? What are you choosing in light of your personal trials? Those who align with God will have an easier time overall. Archangel Michael addressed the subject here: <http://www.expresssuccess.net/tribulation/>

Have you questioned the second coming? I had a conversation with Jesus Sunday which reiterated this previous message of his. I will share more of his insights from Sunday once I can compile all my notes properly for you. However, in the interim, you can read this message from him on the second coming: <http://www.expresssuccess.net/own-the-messiah-in-your-heart/>

What is important to know is you can experience the world from a place of fear or love, aligned with darkness or the light. You can trust that there is a plan bigger than you could ever understand and trust it. You can let go to help skate through these end of times, or hold onto the past including fear, emotional baggage, judgment, limiting beliefs, etc. and suffer through them because of not letting go.

The circumstances occurring may be temporary but if you want a better experience while they are, you have the power to change your position on the subject, the way you relate and how you choose to experience life.

Choose to experience life from a place of peace and love and you will experience the qualities of Heaven on Earth sooner than later.

Wishing you a wonderful weekend,

Blessings,
Joy
