Wisdom of the Guardian

Let's Turn Up the Light!

As the causal level of many of humanities problems have been released, it is now time to release the effects. There has been much put in place to undermine humanity. The whole universe is supporting the efforts to shift the physical realities so all can experience first hand what is now becoming possible.

In support of that effort, much light gets flooded into the planet which will help bring up old issues so they can be released. Just let go! Obviously, easier said than done in some cases, especially if you can't identify the cause, and that's where I come in to assist. However, if you are willing to just let go, the additional light will help you release your old memories, emotions, limiting beliefs, programming, baggage, etc.

Be aware that as more light comes in, which we are expecting in March, you may experience accession symptoms of being more tired, irritable, flu-like symptoms, aches and pains, etc. until you adjust to the increase in light. Everyone relates to the increase of light differently. Knowing these are possibilities, you can relax more and go with the flow so to speak. You ascend to a higher vibration as you let go of the lower energies of the past.

I help my regular clients let go of all the above quicker and easier, including the symptoms, but if you are experiencing these symptoms of ascension, rest when you need it, and drink more water and just LET GO!

Below, Archangel Faith shares her insights on regrets of the past, the last opportunity to hear the replays are available and case study of spells.

Wishing you a wonderful weekend.

Faithfully yours,
Joy

Regrets of the Past...

Regrets of the past should be put aside because they are futile. What I would recommend people understand is that what has happened did for a variety of reasons but it is no longer necessary to dwell on the past or what happened. By letting go of what happened, you become free to be, do or have what is purposeful now. There really is no time and space. That is a human concept by which people measure. However, if you let go of what is perceived in the past, you are set free from it able to create in the moment that which is for the highest good of all.

At no time in history has it been more important to let go of the past. Heaven on earth is here. You can embrace its qualities by letting go of the limiting beliefs, the negative memories and emotions from the past that ultimately hold you back from the possibilities that exist for you today at this time.

There is nothing that needs happen to change your life. You only have to let go of what doesn't serve your highest and best good. As you do that, all that is purposeful opens up to you more effortlessly.

Personal Case Study - Love-Life Spells

Although it sounds more like something you only see in fairy tales, I clear spells more than you would ever realize.

I was working with a man recently who had a spell placed upon him by a woman to ruin his love life. It isn't always necessary to identify all the details but once I have identified if someone has had a spell placed upon them, I can clear the cause and effect and all connected to the story. All become set free from the constraints of those spells. Any type of manipulation of this kind comes with karma to those who initiate. I may not be clearing their karma, however, unless they happen to be the client.
