National Daughters Day and Why All Women Have Daughters

month of September."

According to one site on National Daughters Day: "National Daughters Day is celebrated on 25th September of every year and now in 2018, it will be the same. Daughters Day date varies across countries and is celebrated on different dates across the world. On this day, parents wish the love of their lives, the little angels, Happy Daughters Day. There might be some confusion regarding when is National Daughters Day or When is Daughters Day. National Daughters Day can be celebrated on the fourth Sunday in the Obviously many of you have daughters but many of you may not realize all women have daughters. How is that possible? Well, everyone has an inner child. The inner child is actually the same sex as the biological body. Clairvoyants can actually see them. In my work as a spiritual healer, I tune into the subconscious/inner child and have seen them as well as speak with them. You can actually see and speak with them. They speak to you often through your feelings. But, also your thoughts.

They are one of the most important relationships you can foster. The inner child is the one that manifests or blocks what you want to manifest. They carry and access and also help you release your unsupportive or negative memories when we are in a session.

If you don't make them happy, they can boycott helping you. I'll never forget when business slowed down for a couple of weeks, which concerned me. So, knowing my inner child is the part of me that manifests, I checked with her first. She said that since I decided to go on a diet and gave up ice cream she was upset. As soon as I agreed to get her ice cream, she told me to call a particular friend/client. When she answered, she said she had been meaning to call me for an appointment. Business went back to my usual flow after that.

What does your inner child enjoy? If you aren't doing fun things she enjoys, she may be blocking you from something you want.

If your tear ducts are sunken, your inner child is absent.

If you are traveling, you want to tell them where you are going and they can actually pack their own bags. There is so much to life we don't know about or see that goes on behind the scenes.

Years ago, my friend, who was a clairvoyant would see mine on a skate board. You'd never find me on one! Also, if she got frustrated with my overworking, she'd leave and go play at my girl friend's house with her inner child.

To those two intellectually based, this all may seem far fetched. But, those of us of who can see them and have been able to see the benefits from developing a more effective relationship with them have been extremely grateful for gaining the understanding and accepting of their existence.

Your inner child can usually see six months in advance and also can help smooth things out with the other inner children of those you wish to engage with or achieve some improvement.

If they aren't present with you at the gym, it is harder and more tedious to exercise.

If they aren't with you at work, you will find it harder to focus and will have a harder time remembering what is needed to be recalled.

Their discovery is a great gift, and developing a relationship with them an even bigger one. Cultivate the relationship with your inner child and you will be happier and your life will be richer. We always include them in our monthly group calls because of their significance.

To all daughters, wishing you a blessed and joyous day.

Much love,

Joy
