What is the Cause of Darkness?

purpose here, I am going to give you highlights.

When it became evident that I was dealing with a lot of darkness within the scope of my practice, I asked Archangel Michael to explain darkness. At the time, he said "the un-evolved". That sounded rather polite considering the things I was being shown during my sessions identifying and clearing the cause of my clients' challenges.

I could write quite extensively on the subject from the now years I have been dealing with it, but for the

Since I share the same soul as Michael and work with him during my sessions, I have seen sometimes back to what I consider the beginning of time. During my sessions, I have dealt with Lucifer, Satan and more recently the Prince of Darkness. They are actually three different individuals combined in popular culture considered the "devil". The brief description is that the Prince of Darkness was created at the same time as the Prince of Light (Archangel Michael). Michael's role was to defend the light (God) and creation and the Prince of Darkness was defending the nothingness which all creation stems from originally. Evil came out of the need to defend a position. Had there been no judgment that one had more value than another there would have been no need to defend a position.

Satan was an angel who noticed God give another angel something he did not receive. The judgment he made was that he must be inferior because someone else got something he did not receive. That insecurity created the need to justify his importance.

Lucifer, another angel, was given an assignment by God. He judged himself as superior and didn't want the job for which he was chosen.

to Change Your Life. She was also a contributing author to Big Bold Business. Her chapter addresses how your subconscious is either supporting or sabotaging your success.

Her pro bono work focuses on a global peace and prosperity initiative healing the cause of the imbalances of life to the atrocities affecting all.

Therefore, the beginning of our being challenged by darkness came out of the judgment of inferiority or superiority and the defending of their position to prove one's value. During these sessions of identifying the cause, we were able to clear the story that began a particular dynamic to unfold. There are other dynamics I can elaborate on later.

The truth of the matter is that we were all created from the same nothingness and that no one really has any more value than another. If the angels at the time understood and accepted that, the problems that came out of these dynamics would not have occurred. The problems that have occurred are the effects of darkness (that un-evolved viewpoint).

I will elaborate on the effects of darkness in the future, which has caused you to suffer.

The Battle with Darkness

As I wrote the above to give you a simple explanation, I grew very tired. Having worked with darkness for so long, I know that is an indication that I am battling it. I tuned in to recognize both the army of darkness as well as the army of God present. Needless to say I triggered their participation by bringing attention to their leadership. Although the battle with their leadership has drawn some successful outcomes, their armies are still in place.

Upon identifying their presence, I was guided to clear with the contracts darkness had on God specifically. There were seven that I was guided to sever. I cleared all terms and conditions of those contracts, cause and effect and all participants to those contracts. As I completed the work, both armies retreated and my energy was relatively restored.

When I have done that same clearing for myself and my clients, it has had a huge impact especially on those that are healers with a practice. Many healers or light workers have had those same types of contracts taken on them so they don't succeed at sharing their gifts. I could see the difference when I removed them for me and grateful to have done so. It will be interesting to see what happens as these contracts and their impacts are fully released.
