Peace is Possible

So many of you are troubled by the news. It doesn't seem feasible that peace is possible. I can assure you it is and in my lifetime.

There is much in the works to bring about peace. Our heavenly colleagues are working tirelessly to assist in bringing about peace. Although many of us wish for a magic wand of sorts to come down and make this a peaceful environment, there are variables often unfamiliar to us. The dynamics of living on a "free-will" planet create a unique breeding ground for mayhem. The universe at large responds to our choices as well as our requests.

We may request peace in the Middle East but choose anger within our own hearts. You can't have both. If you want peace in the Middle East, you must choose it within your own heart and express it outwardly.

Once enough people choose peace within and without, there will be enough light coming from within us to bring more light down into the environs that need it most.

We contribute to the outcome by the very thoughts and actions we make on a daily basis.

a contributing author to Big Bold Business. Her chapter addresses how your subconscious is either supporting or sabotaging your success.

Her pro bono work focuses on a global peace and prosperity initiative healing the cause of the imbalances of life to the atrocities affecting all.

If you sit in judgment of self and/or others, you are not in peace. Peace permeates the lands starting from within. Create an environ of peace from within yourself, then within your home, then within your neighborhood and so and so forth.

The more who choose peace, the higher the vibration of the planet, the higher the vibration, the less tolerant or attractive anything that doesn't resonate with that vibration becomes.

Right now the lack of peace on the planet is demonstrating the consciousness of the planet at large. Those that wish to take 100% responsibility for the lack of peace on the planet will work on themselves to change the world. And, they CAN change the world.

Peace is possible.

Anyone interested in joining me to create it?

Case Study

A client was having trouble manifesting money. During a session, I saw her in several different lifetimes where money was an issue. She was still carrying these memories and living from the limited beliefs she had from those experiences.

Each time you let go of negative memories of the past, there is less supportive evidence in a particular experience toward a specific limited belief. By letting go of these memories, you let go of the limited beliefs that come from them. It is then easier to create as well as effortlessly attract new possibilities.
