Joyful News - 6/23/17

Over the last few months, there has been much work done to elevate the future for all. Addressing the darkness behind the undermining of humanity has been challenging to say the least. We have gathered enormous insights through our work clearing darkness and we will be putting more educational pieces to inform everyone how to be more savvy and protect themselves. Most, however, don't even realize what they are up against because the darkness has always been excellent at masking itself as light.

In the interim, I was guided to head west. I am currently in Arizona and hope to see friends and family in Las Vegas and Los Angeles, but nothing is scheduled. I may consider doing some speaking engagements while out west as well. Some of the new programs will be to educate people on the history of the world from the perspective of what actually happened rather than what has been previously been taught that happened.

I am reminded of the last time I was asked to get a one-way ticket out west. It was the beginning of the journey of turning Lucifer back to the light. As I was guided to get another one-way ticket here this time, I was told, that this trip will be more about my own recovery from all that battling of darkness than one of further drama reminiscent of the trip in 2012. But, if you never read that story of Lucifer or would like the update of his status, read below.

In the interim, please reach out as inspired. I hope to see as many of you as possible.

Wishing you a wonderful weekend.

Blessings,

Joy

The Legacy of Lucifer

If you are not already familiar with my background with Lucifer, here are the links to two blog posts.

The first leads to this second one which contains the letter God had me deliver to him.

The update, however, is that Lucifer is working for the light and providing intelligence now as to how to fight the darkness. It has been an extraordinary shift in events and experience that I will elaborate on when appropriate. But, this has been extraordinary so far. We still have a lot of unraveling to do from his efforts and the efforts of the darkness to undermine humanity but, we are making significant progress.
